

Comprehension: (6 pnts)

My dream is to work as a body-guard in the future. So, I go to the BGS – Body-Guard School- in my town. They tell me if I want to study in this school, I must be at a minimum of 1.80 meter height and be very athletic too. This encourages me to start my subscription; especially, they don't oblige any specific hair length or eyes colour. To be black or white doesn't matter as well.

They also inform me that any student in this school must be very serious, courageous and highly confident. On the other hand, we mustn't be weak, shy or even naughty.

Surely, they will accept me in BGS because I have a strong personality. My mother always says I'm honest and helpful and talkative sometimes, but people can count on me.
